Now have a look at the passage attached below about Captain Purplebeard! Can you circle the possessive apostrophe? Now underline the thing that is 'belonging' to identify why the possessive apostrophe is needed!

Can you spot where my possessive apostrophes are?

Tuesday - Writing using possessive apostrophes

Recap yesterday's powerpoint if you need to.

Today we are going to practise writing words that need to use the possessive apostrophe. Have a look at the sheet attached below! Like the powerpoint asked you to do, look at the pictures, now write a sentence that uses the possessive apostrophe showing that something belongs. There are some examples to help you along the way!

Year 2 Home and In School Learning

Grammar and Spelling

Possessive apostrophes

Grammar focus: possessive apostrophes

Spellings for this week: see powerpoint

Monday - break steak

Tuesday - great

Thursday - beautiful

Friday - pretty

Spellings One per day

Look at spelling powerpoint. One word per day. Put the powerpoint onto slide show. The slide will reveal the word, then hide it for the children to have a go at writing. It will then reveal the word so they can check it. This happens twice for the same word. Then try to put the word into a sentence. This activity should take no more than ten minutes.

Thursday - Practise and apply

Remind yourself about the possessive apostrophes we have been practising!

Now have a go at correcting the sheet attached below! Some possessive apostrophes have been used incorrectly and some have been missed out. Add them in where needed or cross out and correct words above to show how they should be spelt!

Friday - practise!

Have a go at some of the possessive apostrophe activities on seesaw that we drop into your inbox!

Can you circle the words where I have used a possessive apostrophe and underline the thing that 'belongs'.

The monster's head sunk below the water.

The ship's decks were slippery and wet.

The fiddler's map was brown and curly.

The pirate's beds were hard and lumpy!

The monster's teeth went crunch!

Write a short sentence that includes a word using the possessive apostrophe to show something belongs.

Example: The parrot sat on the fiddler's shoulder.

Can you spot where the possessive apostrophes have been missed out or used incorrectly? Add them in where needed or cross out the incorrect word and write it correctly above!

The ships bow sunk into the water as the pirat'es boat flew through the air!
Captain Purplebeards body dropped down to the monsters' jaws. The monsters tentacles grabbed the pirates and held them tight. The crews oars dropped into the water and soon there was nothing left!
